YELLOW BEAUTY, AS GROWN IN THE GARDEN OF THE ORIGINATOR

Certified Dahlias

INTRODUCTION

WE HAVE great pleasure in again submitting to you our annual catalog of Dahlias.

This list is not so large and comprehensive as many others, but it embraces what I consider to be the best varieties in existence today. We are hybridizers and raisers of new varieties, and many of our varieties such as Jersey's Beauty and Jersey's Beacon have become standard and known the world over wherever good Dahlias are grown. We could introduce a dozen or so new varieties each year, but our rule and aim is to introduce only what is superior to existing varieties, as our object is to improve the standard rather than mere monetary gain.

Again thanking you for past favors, and assuring you prompt service, no matter how small the order may be.

W. H. WAITE

General Information

ORDER EARLY

STOCK of some of the varieties is limited, so to avoid disappointment please order early. All orders will be filled strictly in rotation, stock will be reserved, as the orders are received, and shipped at the time desired.

TUBERS

All orders for tubers will be filled with strong divisions of field-grown tubers. We do not as yet carry any pot tubers.

GUARANTEE

While we exercise every care in the filling of orders for tubers and only send out what we honestly think will grow, we do not guarantee any tuber that is shipped before March 15th. After that date tubers will be guaranteed, and will be replaced free of charge if they should prove blind. Many of the failures with plants and tubers are due to causes entirely beyond our control, such as weather, or soil conditions, bad planting, etc., and while we take the greatest care to send out only stock which will produce satisfactory results, we cannot be held responsible for failure.

We also exercise the greatest care to have all stock true to name, but should any of them prove otherwise, it is mutually agreed between the purchaser and ourselves, that we shall not be held liable for a greater amount than the original purchase price of the stock.

TERMS

To keep down office expenses, I have no charge accounts, and will allow a discount of 5 per cent when cash accompanies order. All other orders sent C. O. D., unless by a special agreement.

POSTAGE

All retail orders amounting to $1.00 or over will be delivered prepaid, on orders for less than $1.00, 25 cents should be added to cover postage.

Wholesale orders, packing charges, and postage at cost.

GREEN PLANTS

I have made a specialty of green plants for several years, know how to grow them and how to pack them, and will guarantee safe delivery to any destination within three days' journey from here.

Should they not arrive in good condition, I will either replace them or cheerfully refund the money.

TIME FOR PLANTS

I will ship plants any time desired after May 15th, but recommend from May 20th to June 20th as being the best.

Inspector's certificate accompanies each shipment.

Cultivation of Dahlias

DAHLIAS are easily grown, requiring no special soil or treatment to bring them to perfection. They love an open, sunny situation, but also succeed in partial shade.

Prepare the soil thoroughly by digging 12 to 18 inches deep in the Fall, and then again in the Spring before planting.

If the soil is poor, work in some well-rotted manure in the Fall and apply artificial fertilizer in the Spring—100 pounds to 1000 square feet.

Dig holes 3 or even 4 feet apart and about 6 inches deep; drive a stout stake in each hole and lay the tuber down flat with the crown toward the stake and cover with 2 or 3 inches of soil, leaving the balance of the hole to be filled up later, after the plant comes up.

Plant any time between April 15th and June 15th, the latter date being the best for exhibition flowers.

When the plants have made their third set of leaves, the top should be pinched out, to make them branch. Allow only one plant to each stake.

The most important thing from now on is hoeing and cultivating until the buds appear; this should be done at least every week and after every rain. After the buds appear the ground should be mulched with rotted manure if possible, and a thorough watering should be given whenever the plants require it.

Disbudding the side buds, leaving only the terminal bud to develop, will bring larger blossoms.

After the plants have been blackened with the first frost they should be carefully dug, allowed to dry for a few hours, and stored in a dry cellar or basement and covered with dry sand or soil to keep them from shriveling.

Divide the tubers in the Spring, after the eyes show plainly, being careful that each tuber has a piece of the crown attached with an eye, cover them again and keep dry and cool until planted.

GREEN PLANTS

As there has heretofore been some objection to green plants, I will say that I guarantee my plants to be strong, healthy, and to get to the customer in good condition.

I, and many other growers of fine Dahlias, find from experience that green plants are better than tubers, as they are less liable to become diseased than roots, and they will produce as good, if not better flowers, and also will produce nice healthy roots for the next year.

Dip the root of the plant in water before planting, plant at least 6 inches deep, filling the hole up gradually as the plant grows; it is best to set out the plants late in the afternoon or on a cloudy day, water them well when planting, and if the weather be hot and sunny, shade for a few days with twigs with leaves on them.

The after-cultivation and care of the plants should be the same as for tubers.

CARDINALIS

Waite's Gardens New Introductions for 1930

ANTARTICA (MacDonald) Decorative

This is a pure white of large size, very free flowering, with an excellent habit of growth. The long, sturdy stems carry the flowers erect at all times. For a white, the foliage is exceptionally rugged and healthy, and both an exhibition and cut flower variety. It is an acquisition.

Plants only, $5.00

CARDINALIS (James Kennedy) Decorative

Winner as best undisseminated seedling at Trenton, in an extra strong class. It is a brilliant Cardinal Red, splendid formation. The flowers are borne on strong upright stems. First shown at Newark in 1928 under the name of West Point, and rechristened this year, as that name had already been used. Imagine a handsome soldier in red coat on parade and you have a partial visualization of this beautiful Dahlia.

Tubers $10.00, Plants $5.00

JEAN TRIMBEE

JEAN TRIMBEE (Trimbee) Hybrid Cactus

This beautiful variety is a native of Canada, having been raised by Mr. Trimbee of Lambton Mills, and exhibited at Toronto for the past two years. The flowers are very large, many over 12 inches, and a beautiful rich Petunia violet in color. It has a strong, vigorous habit and the large attractive flowers are produced very freely. It was easily one of the most outstanding varieties in my exhibition garden the past year, and we feel highly honored at being asked to introduce so unusual and outstanding variety. Tubers $10.00, Plants $5.00

JERSEY'S RUBY (Waite) Decorative

Very often we are asked to recommend a Dahlia that will do for landscape work, and we have no hesitancy in recommending this variety. The habit of the plant is ideal, being medium in size and the stems so stiff that the plant does not need staking. Growing naturally, one can have a perfect shaped bush, carrying from 20 to 25 perfect blooms all over 6 inches in diameter. The flowers have a very pleasing formation and the color is dark ruby with very little signs of fading.

Tubers $5.00, Plants $2.50

JERSEY'S TRIUMPH

JERSEY'S TRIUMPH (Waite) Decorative

Ever since we introduced Jersey's Beauty we have been looking for another Dahlia that had the same habit, and out of the thousands of seedlings that we have raised, this is the only one that has ever shown the same habit. There are sports from Jersey's Beauty that of course have the same habit, but this is a seedling from the same parents and is identical with Jersey's Beauty in habit and growth that they cannot be distinguished apart before they bloom. The color, however, is entirely different and is a real Autumn shade of bright copper flushed with salmon bronze. We predict a great future for this variety as a cut flower, as there is nothing just like it in the long-stemmed Dahlia.

KATHERINE COLE
Winner of the Darnell Cup

KATHERINE COLE (McDowell) Decorative

At the last New York Show this beautiful Dahlia was shown under number and won the Darnell Cup for the best keeping variety. Many people said that it was easily the most beautiful Dahlia in the Show. I had seen the Dahlia before and was impressed with it, as it has the long-stemmed habit that I like so much. I have been fortunate in being able to get this splendid variety to add to my new introductions. In color it is a beautiful combination of light pink and cream. The tips of the petals are pink, shading to cream, with a pink center. Imagining an Eagle Rock Beauty on a Jersey's Beauty stem would give one a fair idea of the beauty of this flower. The stems are long and stiff, yet not thick, and the flower is always looking you in the eye. The foliage is thick and healthy and, above all, it is a free bloomer. Stock limited.

Plants only, $7.50

MABEL S. DOUGLAS

MABEL S. DOUGLAS (Thompson) Decorative

This is one of the largest of the new Dahlias and came near being the sensation of the New York Show, where it won first in one of the seedling classes. In color it is a clear pastel lavender. It is a large flower and might easily become popular for the largest bloom classes, as it is one of those flowers that will measure much larger than it looks, on account of the graceful curl of the long petals. For a large Dahlia the stem is exceptionally good, and the foliage and habit of growth are excellent. We are fortunate in being asked by the originator of this splendid new Dahlia to introduce it, and as the stock is limited and all available tubers now being sold, we are offering

TARRYTOWN

TARRYTOWN (MacDonald) Decorative

This is a splendid new variety that I have been fortunate in securing. I saw this variety at several shows for the past two years and always admired it. It was awarded a Certificate of Merit at the Westchester and Fairfield Horticultural Society Show, scoring 89 points. It was in good company, as this is a show where only an expert can win. In color it is principally bronze, shading darker toward the edges of the large broad petals. It is an excellent grower with heavy texture foliage. The stems are strong and hold the finely formed flowers well up above the foliage.

Waite's Gardens Former Introductions JERSEY'S BEACON. Decorative

This Dahlia has become a universal favorite. As an exhibition flower, it has few equals in its color, but as a garden variety it is even more spectacular. The color is Chinese scarlet, with a paler reverse, giving it a two-toned effect. The flowers are large and globular in shape; it is a vigorous grower and has splendid insect-resisting foliage.

Tubers $1.00, Plants 50c.

JERSEY'S BEAUTY. Decorative

The most popular Dahlia in commerce today. A glorious flower of eosine pink—a color difficult to adequately describe. As a cut flower or for exhibition it is unrivaled. Fine stems and foliage.

The flowers are large and of good form, well placed on the stem. The color is best described as a yellow hue of orange. The stems are long and stiff, but sometimes arch gracefully. It is a robust grower and the flowers are produced very freely; the leaves, thick and leathery in texture. The long stems branch freely from the base and the stems may be cut as long as that of Jersey's Beauty.

Tubers $5.00, Plants $2.50

YELLOW BEAUTY. (Wood) Decorative

This splendid new yellow Decorative will, I predict, be in the yellow class, what Jersey's Beauty is in the pink. I have watched it closely for the past three years, and it has all the attributes of a perfect Dahlia. This Dahlia while primarily a commercial Dahlia, yet can be grown to exhibition size. I have seen many 9 inches across and from 4 to 5 inches in depth. It has the long, free branching habit of its parent Jersey's Beauty, and a plant pinched once or twice can carry eight to twelve perfect flowers, none less than 6 inches. The stems are more slender than Jersey's Beauty, yet always stiff, holding the flowers erect and at a proper angle for vase work.

This splendid variety from Massachusetts is indeed an acquisition. The color is a very delicate shade of primrose yellow. The flowers are immense in size for a Cactus, and the stems are good. NEW BOOK on DAHLIA CULTURE

By W. H. WAITE

A book full of practical information, suitable for the amateur as well as the professional

SECOND EDITION, PRICE $1.65 PREPAID

The Florists Exchange and Horticultural Trade World gives it the following review:

THE LITTLE BOOK OF MODERN DAHLIA CULTURE

This is unquestionably one of the best and most original of "The Little Book Series." Written by W. H. Waite, one of the most successful of Dahlia raisers in the East, it is notable for its straightforwardness and readable style. Beyond utilizing some previously published information on the chemistry of soils, which is acknowledged, this little volume is the result of Mr. Waite's practical experience. Moreover, while disclaiming any ability as a penman, he demonstrates that he can write entertainingly on an old subject and, at the same time, hand out information that is not generally known. Mr. Waite follows nothing and nobody; he expounds his views clearly and emphatically, not hesitating to directly oppose statements made by others. It is particularly refreshing to read his views regarding propagation from cuttings; incidentally, we have never seen the advocates of split roots come out with such a clear cut exposition of facts as does Mr. Waite for green plants.

The little book under notice, like all others of "The Little Book Series," is well bound in green cloth; it contains 126 pages including the pages at the back for record keeping, and is freely illustrated with splendid halftones, all from photographs taken by Mr. Waite.

Hybrid Delphinium. Perennial Larkspur

There are few hardy perennials that have the charm of the Delphinium, varying in color from the palest sky-blue to the deepest indigo and in height from 3 to 8 feet.

They are not fastidious in their culture, succeeding in most well-tilled soils.

To obtain the best results, plant them in well enriched soil and give plenty of water during the growing season.

To get immediate results, strong, one-year-old field grown plants should be used, as they possess all of their initial vigor. They should be planted in the Fall or very early Spring, just as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

We have been collecting Delphiniums for a number of years, having purchased stock from all of the specialists, both at home and abroad, and from all of the various strains we have selected the very best, and we now have to offer a fine lot of specially selected, field-grown plants that are sure to satisfy all lovers of this fine, hardy flower.

Strong, field-grown plants, 75c. each, $8.00 per doz., $50.00 per 100

Pot-Grown Delphiniums

We are also offering for Spring delivery only, strong, pot-grown plants of the Wrexham strain of Delphiniums. These plants are grown from the very best imported English seed and are the same that we will be using for our own planting. To those who have had difficulty in germinating the seed of this wonderful strain of Delphinium this is an opportunity to get these young unflowered plants, and thus get the initial benefit from them. These plants will all bloom from August until frost, giving spikes from 3 feet to 4 feet in height and the following year they will be at their best.

Plants carefully packed and guaranteed to arrive safely.

$6.00 per doz., $40.00 per 100
